

1. WRITE A SHORT NOTE ON STATE ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL.

The state administrative tribunals are established under the Administrative Tribunal Act of 1985 by central government on specific request of the state government concerned. As of now SATs have been established in 9 states including Odisha.

The chairman and members of a SAT are appointed by the President by the president after consultation with the governor of the state concerned.

The SATs exercise original jurisdiction in relation to recruitment and all service matters of state government employees.

Appeals against State Administrative Tribunals lies with the High Court concerned.

VANIK-IAS
Exclusive Coaching for UPSC/OPSC